

Mushroom Foray with Roger Phillips 13th October 2007 in aid of the Coronation Hall

48 people joined Roger Phillips in Savernake Forest for an enthralling morning's exploration. They returned fully laden with an amazing selection of mushrooms and fungi to enjoy a delicious lunch at the Coronation Hall.

The chicken, very kindly donated by Jesse Smith of Marlborough, were cooked by Annette Hoogeweegan with the accompanying vegetables cooked by Ann Dudney and Belinda Talbot. The mushrooms collected during the foray were cooked by Roger and added to the delicious lunch provided by the Grafton Ladies. The Puddings which followed were superb and made by Linda Weldon, Angela Walsh, and Sally Butt, and the whole lunch was organised by Alison Comyn.

It was a very successful day and many thanks to everyone who helped organise it.
