

September will soon be here

Community activities have been understandably quieter over the summer holidays but planning and booking events into the Hall Diary continues. From September there will be activities every morning at the Coronation Hall as well as new Pilates Classes on Monday evenings. Harvest Supper will take place in the hall for the first time on Monday 27 September and a Fungi Forage & Feast is planned for Saturday 9 October.

There are many private bookings in the diary too, so if you are planning an event in the Autumn do check availability at the Hall as soon as you can by calling 01672 810406 or email hall@graftonparish.com

Best wishes for a warm and pleasant final few weeks of summer and for a successful harvest.

Inaugural Community Camp a great success

A number of Parish families enjoyed the first community camp on the school playing field on Friday 6 and Saturday 7 August.

Bedtime on Friday followed toasted marshmallows, hot chocolate and traditional camp fire singing.

The weather was largely fine as children aged 2-12 enjoyed bug hunting, small mammal trapping and bat detecting with the Wiltshire Wildlife Trust, a birds of prey demonstration, orienteering on the Green and camp cooking over a real fire.

Particular thanks to Darren and Dawn for showing their Harris Hawks to the children and to General and Mrs Walsh whose garden is adjacent to the playing field. We hope to run another camp in Summer 2011.

St Nicholas Harvest Supper and Produce Auction

Monday 27 September at 7.30pm

If you think that bidding for a marrow or a bag of apples is a serious business then you could not be more wrong! You must not miss this event! Excellent food and liquid refreshment, all the hustle and bustle of the market and a chance to support your church all in one very enjoyable evening.

Any harvest fare, cakes, jams, etc. which you can spare and would like to donate should be left in the Hall porch on Sunday evening or Monday morning please.

Tickets at £15 each are quickly sold out so call Millie on 01672 810266 or Gabby on 01264 731338 to avoid disappointment.

Doors open at 7.30pm and the evening continues until there is nothing left to eat, drink or sell! We are into recycling so please bring your own large shopping bags as well!

UP certificate PG

Superb animation turns Disney's tale of a grumpy old man and plump little boy into a touching and exciting flight of fancy. Highly recommended for all ages, a touching, entertaining and life-affirming film. UP, a film so fantastically buoyant, so soaring and so universal, that it's hard to check the urge to get down on one's knees before the cinema screen and give thanks for the joy of being a moviegoer in an age when the Pixar animation studio has produced a run of brilliant titles that compares with the golden era of late-1930's Disney.

An interval, bar and ice creams.

All tickets sold on the night.

Adult £4.00, children (under 15) £3, family of 4 £12

Reviews of the Grafton Gaumont

Keeping Mum

Twitching curtains, a pretty village green and worries over the flower rota – no, not Grafton parish but Little Wallop, the rural backdrop for Keeping Mum, July's Gaumont film screening. We were richly entertained by a cast that included Rowan Atkinson, Maggie Smith and Kristin Scott-Thomas. A hilarious black comedy, this was Ealing comedy for the 21st Century, with more bodies than the average episode of Midsomer Murders.

Rowan Atkinson was delightfully understated as the world-weary vicar, though we caught a glimpse of Mr Bean when he was even more hapless in goal for the village football team than Robert Green. Meanwhile, his wife, Kristin Scott-Thomas dallied with sleazy golf pro, Patrick Swayze, and fretted about her 'over-active' daughter and put-upon son. Miraculously, all these problems, and more, were resolved in unorthodox fashion by the new housekeeper, inimitably played by Maggie Smith. The audience chuckled throughout, speculated on the plot over interval ice creams and cheered loudly at the end.

A real treat that had us watching warily over our shoulders on the walk home!

As someone recently living alone, I welcome the opportunity to have a night out. Where else can you visit a cinema and be surrounded by friends and neighbours and enjoy a drink at very reasonable prices? It's always a relaxed and friendly experience with the bar open both before and during the interval to help the ambiance. Why not give it a go in September? Far better than watching "East Enders" or "Coronation Street"

Grafton Life meets Martin Butt, Church Warden at St Nicholas' Church

Cerys, Jack, Liam, Louise and Stacey the Year 6s at Grafton School met Martin Butt for their final interview, before leaving to start Secondary School in September.

What does a Church Warden do?

Along with Goff Beese the other Church Warden I generally look after the Church. This includes overseeing the cleaning and maintenance, ensuring the church is opened and locked each day and assisting at services. We have a very active bat population in the Church and this involves lots of sweeping before each service!

Where do you live?

I live close to the Church with my wife Sally and children Henry, Poppy and Florence. We have two dogs, Thistle and Hebe and I enjoy walking them on the Green.

What is your job?

I teach Latin at a local independent school.

What do you do in your spare time?

I enjoy bike rides, playing the piano, reading and gardening.

What challenges does the church face?

Our finances are our perennial issue. We do not have enough income each year to meet our running costs. Events such as the Plant Sale and the Harvest Supper are a huge help but it would be wonderful to see more parishioners attending services or perhaps making a regular contribution to the Church by direct debit.

Derrick Foord says farewell

Derrick Foord is retiring from the Wiltshire Constabulary on 31 August after serving more than 30 years in Wiltshire. Derrick has been the Neighbourhood Policing team Community Beat Manager for Grafton Parish for the past two years.

Derrick says that he has enjoyed meeting many people across the parish and dealing with the varied problems faced by a rural community. He will miss the friendliness of the community and the welcome he has received at events such as fetes, coffee mornings and council meetings. He believes that Neighbourhood Policing has brought real Policing back into the Community.

Until a permanent replacement is found then PC Mark Lewis mark.lewis@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk who works in the Neighbourhood Policing team in Devizes and who used to work out of Pewsey Police Station, will be covering the area.

Coronation Hall notices

We would like to thank people who use or hire the new hall for their care and thoroughness in leaving the premises in excellent condition.

The good fairies or gnomes who cut the hedge at the front of the Hall and the side by Green Close are stars too. Thank you very much indeed.

We have had many compliments on the beautiful hanging baskets which arrived from another generous contributor, thank you kind benefactor.

Please note that a party in hall finishes at 12 midnight on 11 September. We have arranged for vehicles to be parked "off site" to minimise any disruption to neighbours.

Grafton Goslings Baby & Toddler Group is changing its day to Thursdays from September. Goslings will meet at the Coronation Hall 10 – 11.30am every Thursday (term time only) from Thursday 9 September.

In the meantime why not join us for a picnic and play on Friday 20 August? Come and join us in the Sunflowers Pre school garden from 10.30am. We'll be making the most of the toys in the garden and the school playing field – lots of safe and secure play space suitable for pre school and primary age children.
