The applicant states "Following feedback from the session in April and extensive work with Wiltshire Council and Historic England throughout the past year, we are now pleased to say that the plans have been finalised and an application was submitted to Wiltshire Council just before Christmas. The application has been assigned the reference number 18/00195/LBC and can be viewed online on the Council's website at www.wiltshire.gov.uk/planning-new."

We hope you agree this is an important step forward in preserving Tottenham House & Estate for future generations and we would like to invite you to view the final plans:

Tuesday 30th January

Between 3pm and 7pm

At Tottenham House, Savernake, Marlborough,

Wiltshire, SN8 3BE

This is intended as a drop-in session so please feel free to join us at a time that is convenient to you within the hours shown above.

This notice has been posted by Grafton Parish Council to enable residents to respond in circumstances where full view of printed plans is not possible at a normal planning meeting following the decision by Wiltshire County to produce plans on-line only.
